

RISS Morning Assembly Policy AY/ 2025-2026

Vision:

- The morning broadcast aims to be a daily educational platform that nurtures ethical and national values among students, enhances their communication and expression skills, and contributes to building a well-rounded personality capable of effective participation within the school community and beyond, through presenting diverse and purposeful content that links learning with values and positive behavior.

Mission:

- To promote educational values and personal skills among students, encourage active participation, with a focus on strengthening national identity and belonging to the homeland, within a positive and inclusive school environment.

Key Policies and Arrangements:

1. The broadcast is conducted daily lasts between 10 to 15 minutes.
2. The segments include:
 - Quran recitation
 - Prophetic Hadith
 - A segment about the educational value of the month
 - A creative segment, talent, play, or theatrical scene
 - School announcements or news
3. All students are encouraged to participate, including:
 - Students with disabilities (with segments suitable to their abilities)
 - Academically weak students (with simplified, encouraging roles)
4. The teacher supervises the selection of segments, training students, and ensuring the readiness of the broadcast.

Monthly Educational Values:

Month	Value of the Month
September	Discipline and Respect
October	Tolerance
November	National Identity and Loyalty
January	Excellence and Distinction
February	Creativity and Innovation
March	Reading and Knowledge
April	Responsibility and Teamwork
May	Evaluation and Academic Attainment